Lone Score for Evers Clan Made in Seventh After Zimmerman's Biff.

New York, May 12 .- With Matty in the box, the Giants to-day succeeded in stopping the Cubs, winning the game 5 to 1. Richie, who opposed Mathewson, was hit hard, the locals' batting overcoming the harm of their quartet of errors. "Lurid Lou" was relieved in the sixth by Lieneld.

Mathewson held the Cubs to three hits, one in the third, one in the sixth and one in the seventh. He did not pass a man, and in the first two innings retired the side on ten pitched balls. The old veteran was never in better trim. Matty is still Matty.

Chicago scored her single tally in the seventh, when Zimmerman hit for one base and scored when the ball went through Shafer to the fence. Herzon's home run and the pretty stops of Fletcher made the game interesting. The score the box, the Giants to-day succeeded

BRAVES WIN ANOTHER

Boston, May 12—Although St. Louis outbatted the Braves nearly two to one to-day, the locals won the game 6 to 4. The visitors used three pitchers and Boston two, but the hitting was hard and continuous. Seven doubles were registered and two triples. Sallee, in addition to pitching a steady game until removed in the fifth, batted for 1890 and fielded his position brilliantly, Hitting when hits counted decided the result. The score:

DODGERS BEAT REDS

Brooklyn, May 12.—The Dodgers to-day again defeated the Reds, winning the second of the series 4 to 3. Rucker was not ir his best form, but the batting of Daubert and the superb support of his teammates made up for his deficiency.

Brooklyn took the lead in the second, when Daubert hit the scoreboard with a circuit drive, scoring one ahead of him. The locals scored again in the fourth and fifth. Chreinnati had a chance to pull even in the fifth, when Rucker eased up and a batting rally put over three runs. The quiet dignity and elegance which characterize THE BLACKSTONE create an atmosphere different from that of any other hotel in the country.

World-wide travelers say that THE BLACKSTONE is the best equipped and best managed hotel in the world.

come to the chamber of the Senate of the United States."

"Is it much changed, may I ask?" said a British delegate.

"The Senate never changes," replied Guide Depew, "except as to personnel, i happen to know from personal experience. The only other change is that we have one new clock over the Vice-President's desk. The chamber is the same. Senators in the early days used snuff and snuff boxes were provided. They have never been removed. There, gentlemen, is the Republican snuff box, and over here is the Democratic snuff box just as they were long before our time."

There's where Senators meet their constituents. You come here and send in your eard to the Senator, and he comes out to see you if he wants to. If he doesn't want to the page tells you he has gone to the ball game or something like that.

To the President's Room.

To the President's Room.

"Now, follow me, please, to just one more room. This, gentlemen, is the room occupied only by the President of the United States. Always heretofore the President came here only at the closing hours of Congress to sign bills. Years ago Washington and Adams used to come up here often, but no one ever did that since until now. President Wilson has revived that old custom, and he comes up here three or four times a week to confer with Senators and members of the House.

"Leaders of this movement dwell upon the statement that the people have been selzed with an almost religious zenl for cleanness of government. Aspiration for better things ought to be ridiculed by no one, but has sin left us? Are we not all subject to the same weaknesses that have been recognized for 6,000 years?

"Is there not in every line of the campaign speeches, platforms and utterances of the men of the new school the assumption that they have distanced in the matter is one

Visiting Battlefields.

Fredericksburg, Va., May 12.—BrigadierGeneral Charles Morton, retired, and Captain R. F. Ries, United States Army, have been visiting the battlefields here, having taken part in the battless here during the Civil War, and one of them. Captain Rice, lost a leg at the battle of Fredericksbygr in 1852.
Captain Dan M. Lee, of Stafford County, was here Saturday and met Captain H. H.
Marmaduke, who was a midshipman with Captain Lee in the Confederate Navy in 1861.
Captain Marmaduke was on the Marrimac in the great fight with the Monitor, and Captain Lee was on the Jamestewn and participated in the fight. The meeting between these two officers was a happy one. Captain Marmaduke is now in the War Library of the Navy Department at Washington.

fourth lecture on "Some Questions of Modern Government" at Yale to-day Professor William H. Taft characterized the form of government advocated by the Progressives as 'hair trigger" and the "leading to anarchy and a despotism of the majority." Professor Taft's statements were made in connection with dis discussion of the recall of legislative and administrative officers. He promised to discuss the recall of the judicial decisions, which embodies the recall of judges, at a
